NEWS FROM KENNEWICK

By Tom McMahon, Assistant Business Manager

Hanford Atomic Metal Trades Council (HAMTC)

IBEW Local 77, with the assistance of Chief Stewards Bennie Dooley and David Patrick, settled a grievance with one of the Hanford employers. The settlement amount was for $2100. Unit 117 members decided to contribute the money to five (5) local charities. The charities were the American Cancer Society Tri-Cities, Hospice Tri-Cities, Benton-Franklin Humane Society, Tri-City Union Gospel Mission, and Second Harvest Tri-Cities. IBEW presented the checks to the charities in last January/February. The following members and Secretary Shannon Stringer made the presentations.
